

Isaac Young – Eastham Land Records 1650-1745

Isaac Young as born in 1682. He was the twin son of Joseph Young and his wife Sarah (Davis) Young. Isaac was the grandson of John Young. There is no death record for Issac in the Eastham records. He is an example of a third generation Eastham resident who received few but sizeable land grants.

1711

Granted to Isaac Young and his heirs about four acres of upland next to his other land and next to land of John Knowles and land of Lieut. Edmond Freemand. Bounds were indicated by stones. PDF T45.

Granted to Isaac Young and his heirs land for his wood lot on the northerly side of Samuel Higgins' wood lot. The dimensions indicate the wood lot was about seven and one-half acres. Bounds were indicated by marked trees.

Land at Great Island at Billingsgate was divided into twenty-four approximately equal sized lots which were jointly owned. The ninth lot was granted to Isaac Young, Israel Cole, Deacon Samuel Freeman, Capt. Samuel Freeman and Thomas Mayo. The lot was about six or seven acres like the other lots. Bounds were indicated by stakes and marked trees. PDF T87.

1715

Granted to Isaac Young and Jonathan Smith land for their wood lot on the easterly side of the way to the Herring Brook and on the easterly side of the Herring River and next to land of Lieut. Edmond Freeman. The wood lot ran due east 320 pole (one mile) and northerly forty-four pole which would make the wood lot about eighty-eight acres. Bounds were indicated by marked trees. PDF T295.

The Eastham land owned by Isaac Young described in these records amounts to about fifty-five acres. By 1745 twenty-one more Youngs received Eastham land grants.
